THE CHINA REVIEW.

PUBLISHED BI-MONTHLY.
TENTH YEAR.

THIS Review, which was intended to meet the wants of many students of Chinese history and literature, has reached its fourteenth volume. The Review discusses those topics which are uppermost in the minds of students of the 'Far East' and the subject which every intelligent person contacted with China or Japan is desirous of acquiring trustworthy information. It includes many interesting Notes and original papers on the Arts, Sciences, Ethnology, Folklore, Geography, History, Literature, Philology, Natural History, Antiquities, Social Manners and Customs, etc., etc., of China, Japan, Mongolia, Tibet, and the Far East generally. Recently a new department has been taken, and the Review now gives papers on Trade, Commerce, and Descriptive notes of Travel by well-known writers. It was thought that by extending the scope of the Review in this direction, the Magazine would be made more generally useful.

The Review department receives special attention, and endeavours are made to present a careful and concise record of Literature on China etc., and to give critiques embodying sketches of the most important works on such topics. Authors and Publishers are requested to forward copies to the Editor, China Review, care of China Mail Office.

The Notes and Queries are still continued and form an important means of obtaining information and diffusing among students knowledge on obscure topics. The Correspondent column also affords further and greater facilities for the interchange of views and discussion of various topics.

Original contributions in Chinese, Latin, or any of the Modern Languages are received. The papers are contributed by the members of the various Consular, the Imperial Chinese and Hongkong Services, and also by the Missionary bodies among whom a high degree of Chinese scholarship is assiduously cultivated. Amongst the regular contributors are Dr. Chalmers, Eitel, Deuchneider, and Rith, Professor Lange, and Messrs. Hurlbut, Walter, Sient, Phillips, MacIntyre, Good, Jamieson, Faber, Kopsch, Parker, Playfair, Giles, Piton, and Taylor, all well-known names, indicative of sound scholarship and thorough mastery of their subject.

The Subscription is fixed at $6.50 per annum, postage included—payable in advance.

Orders for binding volumes will be promptly attended to; Address: 'Manager, China Mail Office.'

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

'All our learned societies should subscribe to this scholarly and enterprising Review.'—Northern Christian Advocate (U.S.).

'The China Review *** has an excellent table of contents.'—Celestial Empire.

'The Review always contains subjects of interest to persons in the Far East and the present issue will hold favourable if not advantageous comparison, with preceding numbers.'—Celestial Empire.

'This number contains several articles of interest and value.'—North-China Herald.

'The China Review for September-October fully maintains the high standard of excellence which characterises that publication, and altogether forms a very interesting and readable number. Memorabilia will find an interesting and valuable contribution by Dr. Frith, the fully interesting account, although much of it is second-hand. The Notices of New Books include a most interesting and valuable review of the new edition of the Chinese Language by Mr. Giles.

'The China Review contains less variety than usual, but the few articles are very interesting. The opening paper by Mr. Herbert A. Giles on 'The New Testament in Chinese' is a most valuable contribution to the study of the Chinese language, and the Notes on the 'Assessment of Population' (Results of the Census of 1880) are of great importance to the study of the Chinese language and the history of the Chinese people. Mr. E. H. Parker's paper on the 'Short Journeys in Szechuan' are continued, and a goodly instalment of these travels in the interior of China is given. Mr. F. H. Balfour contributes a paper of some length entitled 'The Em-perors of China, founders of the Chinese Empires,' which will be read with great interest by students of Chinese history.

A few short notices of New Books and a number of Notes and Queries, one of which 'On Chinese Oaths in Western Borneo and Java' might appropriately have been placed under a separate heading, complete the number. The China Review is a most valuable and interesting publication, and its contents are of great value to the study of the Chinese language and the history of the Chinese people.

The Overland China Mail.

A WEEKLY JOURNAL FOR THE HOME MAIL.

IS PUBLISHED to suit the Departure of each ENGLISH and FOREIGN MAIL Steamer for Europe. Formerly the Overland issue was published fortnightly; but as it was deemed of great importance that a weekly budget of news should be prepared, it was decided to issue it weekly. Subscribers at Home, and those at the Coast Ports and in the interior, who find the Overland edition a convenient form of newspaper for their personal use, will welcome the change. The Overland China Mail, now weekly compendium of news from the Far East, contains special Commercial Intelligence, special tables of Shipping, and other information. The various Reports of Courts and Meetings, and all other news are given in full as they appear in the Daily Press.

The attention of Advertisers is directed to a weekly newspaper, which is circulated among all China 'hands' and others, both at home and in the Far East, who do not take the daily journals.

The Overland China Mail will be regularly posted from the China Mail Office to subscribers, on their addresses being forwarded to us.

THE CHINESE MAIL.

THIS paper is now issued every day.
The subscription is fixed at Hongkong, 70 cents per month, 70 cents in advance, including postage to Coast ports.

It is the first Chinese Newspaper ever issued under purely native direction. The chief support of the paper is of course derived from the native community, among whom also are to be found the guaranties and securities necessary to place it on a business and legal footing.

The projector, basing their estimates upon the most reliable information from the various Ports in China and Japan, - from Australia, California, Singapore, Penang, Saigon, and other places frequented by the Chinese - consider themselves justified in guaranteeing a large and ever-increasing circulation. The advantages offered to advertisers are therefore unusually great, and the foreign community generally will find it to their interest to avail themselves of them.

The field open to a paper of this description - conducted by native efforts, but progressive and anti-discriminatory in tone - is almost limitless. It is on the one hand commanded Chinese belief and interest, while on the other it deserves every aid that can be given to it by foreigners.
Like English journals it contains Editorials, with Local, Shipping, and Commercial News and Advertisements.

Subscription orders for the above may be sent to
GEO. MURRAY BAIN,
China Mail Office.
